

Freestanding 3D photo blocks

A contemporary alternative to the picture frame. The funky acrylic blocks with the printed image of your choice have a unique visual impact. The translucent quality reflects and refracts light to create movement and texture. The image appears magnified and the colours in your photos are intensified. These products are a great talking point, perfect for a photographic display anywhere around your home or business. Not just a frame, this is a complete professionally printed image on acrylic.